HITLER DEAD; BERLIN FALLS

Broiler Program Moves Swiftly is This Area; Is To Insure Farm Riches

The broiler program, pronounced the most important poultry development of the century in this community, was speeding along under most promising circumstances Wednesday as results of a meeting Monday night were assessed in the light of their full value to encourage the industry.

A. W. McCullin, President of the Chamber of Commerce, was greatly pleased over the response here and the willingness of Fairmont Creamery Co., to undertake the program in co-operation with producers.

L. Van Perkins, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said some 20 poultry producers were present and about an equal number of produce men and members of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

J. R. Thompson, manager of the Fairmount Creamery Company from Giddings talked business with the farmers and answered many questions. The Company is ready to embark on the program here and to bear a large share of the financial strength necessary to get started.

Mr. Thompson stressed the importance of good feeding and sanitation in the production of broilers. Good money can be made, he said provided the producers will follow a good feeding program and produce broilers under a mass production plan. A single poultry man must produce not less than 5 thousand a year.

To institute such a program hatchery facilities must be doubled and trebbled here. Many of the farmers present asked questions and related their experiences in producing chickens. All expressed willingness to enter the program.

On May 9 at 9 a. m. members of the Chamber of Commerce accompanied by as many farmers as possible will go to Giddings to see the new Fairmont plant and visit broiler farms where chickens are being raised on a mass basis.

Mr. Perkins said that plenty of car space is available and every farmer who wishes is urged to be here on the morning of the 9th for the trip down. The cars will return that afternoon.

CITY QUOTA $90,000 IN 7TH WAR LOAN

Cameron's initial effort in the 7th War Loan will get under way at 9:15 a. m. Wednesday with a meeting of workers at Cato's Cafe, it was announced early today by Dan Tyson, County War Finance Chairman.

The meeting to be held in the morning was announced in a proclamation by Mayor Chas. C. Smith two weeks ago designating May 2nd as the day on which business would be suspended between the hours of 9:30 and 10 a. m. in order that stores and sales organizations might devote 30 minutes to the sale of bonds.

The city's quota of E bonds is 90 thousand dollars. Greater effort will have to be made this time than at any other because of the hike in quotas.

Some of the local leaders were optimistic while others were expecting much more effort than that required for the rally here tomorrow. If the city raises its quota Wednesday it will be the first time such a stride has been made. Cameron usually has a large quota and usually the full limit of the bond period is required to get over.

It was said here Tuesday that around 25 per cent of the quota has already been raised. Pay roll contributions began on April 9. Officially the last phase of the 7th War Loan begins in May 14. There has been some confusion. Milam county got under way earlier than the remainder of the state.

Mr. Tyson will meet with workers at 9:15 Wednesday and from the meeting a canvas will be made. Primarily the 30 minute period is for business men to sell bonds to their employes.

Joseph Stalin announced at 3 p. m. today that Berlin had fallen.

In the fall of the German capital 70 thousand German soldiers were taken. It was said that Adolp Hitler went down with his capital.

It was the most triumphant order of the day yet issued by Stalin who said that the Soviet flag now flies over all sections of the city.

Berlin fell at 10 a. m. central war time, within one hour after the Germans surrendered in Italy and Austria.

VON RUNSTED TAKEN CAPTIVE BY TEXANS

German and Italian armies in Italy and southern Austria have capitulated unconditionally, it was officially announced by President Harry S. Truman in Washington Wednesday morning.

In the surrender are many high ranking officers and from 600 to 700 thousand men, thus almost a million enemy troops are out of action. The surrender was made to a joint staff of Russian, American and British commanding officers which included General Mark Clark of the U. S. Fifth Army and General Alexander, commanding the Italian theatre of war.

Shortly before noon it was announced that General Runsted who scored the break through in Belgium last December was made captive by the 36th Division of Texans fighting in the U. S. 7th Army under General Patch.

Hostilities ended at 8 a. m. Wednesday. The surrender was unconditional and now the Germans and Italians must take orders from the Allies.

Heinrich Himmler, Gestapo Chief, who made a peace bid last Saturday, through.

The Germans were crumbling everywhere. The end might come at any moment.

In Berlin trapped Germans are frantic. The Germans announced late Tuesday that Adolph Hitler is dead. The Allies do not believe the Germans. The Nazi said Hitler died from a cerebral hemorrhage in one report and another that he died in battle.

The Reds were fighting the Germans around the chancellory built by Hitler and are blasting them underground.

3 Top Nazi are Suicides Says Moscow Statement

LONDON, Thursday, May 3.—The Soviet communique anounced Thursday that Adolf Hitler had committed suicide.

The communique also said Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels had taken his own life.

The Soviet communique said that Dr. Hans Fritsche, Goebbel's lieutenant who was taken prisoner in the fall of Berlin, said that Hitler, Propoganlda Minister Goebbels and a General Krebs all had committed suicide.

LONDON, May 2.—Berlin, greatest city of the European continent and capital of Adolf Hitler's blood-drenched empire, fell to the Russians Wednesday after 12 days of history's deadliest street fighting.

Seventy thousand German troops were captured in the final cleanup and all the remnants of the shocked and riven garrison laid down its arms, Premier Stalin announced in an order of the day broadcast from Moscow Wednesday night.

MUSSOLINI IS PRISONER OF ITALIAN PATRIOTS

Benito Mussolini whom Winston Churchill dubbed the jackal of the axis powers, has been taken prisoner by Italian nationalists near the Swiss border, it was made known late Thursday.

Mussolini and his secretary were in disguise as they sought to enter Switzerland, said the report. In attempting to flee to that neutral country, he crossed a portion of Italy and was nabbed by patriots.

A later report said the Italian windbag who will probably hang by his heels in some prison wall in Rome, had reached Como and was still intact in an abandoned castle.

The Italian people were subjected to German brutalities after Mussolini led his country into war and stabbed France in the back. Fascist Italy was never punished by the Allies for her part in world agression. The Italians under Mussolini committed many of the current world crimes, especially in their attack on Ethiopia.

The Russians now in Berlin announced late Thursday that Hitler was not in the capital. Allied sources believe that Hitler has already flown to Bavarian hills. There General Patton's 3rd Army and the Russians were converging on the hideout.

Herman Goering who boasted that no bombs would ever fall on Berlin has resigned as head of the German Air Force on account of an acute heart attack, said the report. . . The German air force is no longer in the air. Like Mussolini's navy at the bottom of the Mediterranean where he ordered it in a submarine.

Goering was reported to have escaped by plane to an unannounced destination with his wife and daughter.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the strain-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN GET BENEFITS

Out of more than a million beneficiaries throughout the country receiving monthly checks under the Federal Old Age and Survivors' Insurance system, 60 per cent of the total are women and children, said David S. Pruitt, manager of the Austin Social Security Board office. This percentage, he said, would hold good in most areas, especially where there is considerable industrial employment.. The monthly checks amount to enough to keep up the purchasing power of thousands of families who might otherwise be destitute because of loss of income through old age or death of the breadwinner.

Lack of information often results in failure to file for benefits and reresults in loss of money to the family. Men and women workers who may have changed employment frequently may wish to occasionally check up on their own social security wage account. A simple post card form may be obtained free to change from any Social Security Board office for this purpose. In a few days the worker will receive confidential statement of total wage credits to his or her account.

Last year, more than 48 million workers were in covered employment, yet more than 20 million farm workers and other types of labor, including self-employment, are excluded from the insurance protceion of the law.

Locker Owners Hear Tips on Preservation Of Frozen Foods

The presservation of foods by freezing is one of the most satisfactory and economical of preserving processes said Miss Marie Wilmeth, Emergency War Food Assistant of the Extension Service, College Station. It takes less time, less fuel, and results in a more palatable product.

Miss Wilmeth gave a "Frozen Food" demonstration to 102 locker owners and Home demonstration club women Thursday afternoon, April 26, in the Educational building of the First Baptist Church in Cameron. Twenty three communities in Milam county were represented.

Some varieties of fruits and vegetables are better frozen than others, but if you have planted the wrong variety, freeze it any way Miss Wilmeth said next year follow the seed schedule and see if you are not more pleased with your results.

Miss Wilmeth prepared English peas, dewberries, and poultry for freezing during the demonstration. In showing how to use frozen vegetable she cooked frozen spinach, frozen cauliflower and frozen squash.

Further information on "Freezing Foods" may be obtained in the office of the county H. D. Agent, Lucille Cook.

Out of county guests for the demonstration included Miss Jo Garland, Bosque county H. D. Agent; Miss Hannah Hoff, Homemaking teacher, Clifton, and Mrs. H. F. Potter, D. D. club member, Meridian.

El Duce Whose Chin Once Held up World Traffic Dies Groveling Coward in a Ditch

MILAN, April 30.—Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, ruthless commander of Libya and former chief of the Italian Army, was reported Monday night to have been tried and executed by partisans in a vengeful purge of Fascists which was touched off by the execution Saturday of Benito Mussolini. There was no immediate official confirmation.

The 61-year-old former Italian dictator and Fascist leader, Mussolini, his beautiful young mistress, Claretta Petacci and 17 other of his Fascist followers were shot to death by Italian patriots Saturday afternoon. They were captured as they tried to flee into Switzerland.

Monday night the body of Mussolini lay in a half-open white wooden coffin in Milan. Next to him in another crude coffin was the body of his mistress, and scattered throughout the room were dozens of bodies of other men executed by the partisans. They were labeled "unknown."

Graziani, who also was captured by partisans in northern Italy, was reported to have gone on trial Monday morning a few hours after the bodies of Mussolini and his followers has been removed from the Piazza Quindici Martiri, where they had been displayed publicly since Saturday night.

At headquarters of the national liberation committee it was said unofficially that Graziani had been convicted and quickly executed. Roberto Farinacci, former Fascist minister and party secretary, already had been reported executed.

The Milan newspaper l'Unita, in an interview with Mussolini' executioner, quoted him as saying the former dictator in a last melo-dramatic gesture, offered to buy his life at Guilano de Mezzegra near Como, "with an empire."

The executioner identified only as a member of the Communist Garibaldi Brigade No. 52, was quoted as saying that Mussolini, as he emerged from a house where he and Claretta, the last of his mistresses, had been held after their capture, turned toward him and said "I'll offer you an empire."

"Instead of answering him," the executioner was quoted as saying, "I told Petacci to come ahead and I pulled her by an arm."

The executioner said they walked down a mule path toward a highway where an automobile was parked.

"On the way," he continued, "Mussolini looked at me only once. He looked as though he was grateful. At this point I whispered to him: 'I also have liberated your son, Vittorio' —I wanted to give the impression I was taking him to Vittorio.

" 'Thanks from the bottom of my heart,' Mussolini said. When we reached the car Mussolini appeared convinced he was a free man. He made a motion to have Petacci precede him. But I told him to go first and suggested that he remove his Fascist cap, which he did.

"I had planned to carry out the execution at a place not far away.

"When we reached the spot I jumped off the mudguard and walked to the end of a curve. Then I returned and said 'Hurry, get over in that corner.'

"Mussolini, even though obeying swiftly, did not appear very convinced any longer. He was obedient just the same and placed himself with his back to the wall at a spot I indicated. Petaccia was at his right. There was silence.

"Suddenly I pronounced the death sentence against the war criminal.

" 'By the order of the general command of the Liberty Volunteer people.'

"Mussolini seemed terrorized. Petacci threw her arms around his shoulders and screamed.

"He must not die."

"Get back in your place," the executioner said he shouted to Claretta.

"The woman jumped back and from a distance of three paces I shot five bursts into Mussolini who slumped on his knees with his head slightly bent on his chest. Then it was Petacci's turn.

"Justice had been done."

After the executions the bodies were put in a German-made moving van and brought to Milan and dumped into the Piazza Quindici Martiri in honor of 15 Italian patriots who were executed there by a Fascist firing squad a year ago.

Thousands of citizens of Milan jammed the Piazza reviling the body of the one-time dictator who started his Fascist movement in Milan, as he lay with his head resting on the body of his former mistress and with a staff bearing the Fascist emblem in one hand.

Later the partisans decided the crowd of un-lookers could not get a good enough view and so strung Mussolini, Claretta and five of the Fascist leaders up by their heels from the rusty framework of a half-completed gasoline station. The bodies of their companions sprawled beneath them in the bloodstained square.

Another eyewitness to the executions said the patriots "renounced all judicial procedure and went directly to the final act."

Mussolini, according to this version, was shot in the back of the head in the Italian tradition for those executed without honor.

"He died like a coward," the witness said, "shouting, 'No, no,' as the execution volley rang out."

Claretta was shot separately, this account said.

Mussolini and his party were recognized at Musso by a customs guard as they sped toward the Swiss border in German military cars. Partisans were notified and erected a barricade across the road at Dongo. The cars offered no resistance and spent last Friday night in cell No. 6 at the SanDomino Prison in Como. He tried to talk to his guards and appeared greatly agitated.

"Why is no one here to defend me?" he was quoted as asking.

From Como the party was divided into three groups and taken to the little town of Guilano de Mezzegra and Mussolini and his mistress were placed in a small windowless cottage from which they were led to their death.

BENITO MUSSOLINI IS PUT TO DEATH SUNDAY

ROME—Benito Mussolini was executed April 29, in Northern Italy and his body with that of 17 other executed Fasicist leaders was on exhibition before a huge crowd in a Milan square, Allied headquarters announced, quoting two British correspondents who saw the bodies.

A headquarters announcement said that the two British war correspondents who returned from Milan said they personally saw the bodies of Mussolini and his henchmen lying in Piazzo Loreto in Milan, where the populace passed by continuously "to view the corpses and revile them."

The story of the two correspondents and the Allied announcement was the first confirmation here of the story broadcast by the Milan radio all day concerning the execution of the 61-year old fallen dictator who ruled Italy for 21 years.

The 61 year old former dictator and his sweetheart Claraetta Petacci, were executed at 4:10 p. m. Saturday at Mulino di Mezzadro Remezzino in Como province, the Milan announcement said, without disclosing the method of execution.

The Rome newspaper Il Momento reported in a special edition that the bodies of Mussolini, Miss Petacci and several others were strung up on a large sign before a department store and that a woman had fired revolver shots at Mussolini's body, shouting "Those are for my five sons you killed."

Today's announcement said the other 16 Fascists, including Gen. Alessandro Pavolini, secretary of Mussolini's puppet Facist regime, were shot in the back at 5:25 p. m. yesterday at Dongo, also in Como province.

The Rome radio broadcast the Milan announcement throughout the day, but there was no immediate confirmation of the executions from Allied headquarters. The Milan station also reported without official confirmation that American troops had entered that city, largest in Italy.

"A very great crowd is in the Piazza Quindici Martiri (Fifteen Martyrs square) where there are the bodies of the 18 Fascists, including Mussolini, executed by Italian justice," said the Milan broadcast.

The square, formerly the Piazza Loreto, has been renamed in honor of 15 Italian patriots who were executed there by the Fascists, the announcement explained.

Mussolini has headed a puppet fascist regime for the Germans since his "rescue" by Nazi parachute troops from the Italian guards in Sept. 1943. He had been forced to resign as premier by King Vitcorio Emanuele the previous July, two months before Americans stormed ashore at Salerno.

Miss Petacci, who shared the rapidly aging Mussolini's "exile" in Northern Italy, was a young Roman girl whom the then dictator was said to have met on the bathing beach at Ostia in the months before his downfall.

NAZI GERMANY DYING UNDER ALLIED BLOWS

The Nazi fires of resistance flickered Sunday night as American troops plunged unchecked into Munich, the Russians ground down the die-hard defenders of Berlin and Italy rang with a reported death of Benito Mussolini.

Munich, birthplace of the Nazi doctrine and "capitol' of the highly-touted Bavarian redoubt, offered no resistance as the U. S. Seventh army launched elements of two divisions into its very heart, seizing the famous beer hall in which Adolf Hitler started his political career.

The Russians, leaving Berlin to mop-up divisions, swept into Northern Germany's Mecklenburg province, isolating the Baltic port of Swenemuende and driving within 56 miles of Rostock.

German troops continued to surrender by the thousands and the Moscow newspaper Izvestia reported a wave of suicides was sweeping the unregenerate Nazi within devastated Berlin.

Talk of unconditional surrender by the Nazi rulers diminshed somewhat, but the Allied-controlled Luxembourg radio asserted, "The battle for Germany is over," and added that "Allied forces are mopping up the last pockets and encircling the remainder of German forces."

While the Seventh crashed into Munich, the U. S. Third liberated 27,000 Allied prisoners, many of them American airmen, at Moosburg, and scored big gains in Bavaria, Austria and Czechoslovakia. The U. S. Ninth swung away from its Elbe river bridgeheads toward remaining Germans in the north, capturing Zerbst and moving toward a juncture with the Russians.

The British crossed the Elbe southeast of Hamburg and Canadians pressing for a showdown on the U-boat coast, crossed the Ems and Leda rivers, capturing most of Leer.

The cleanup in Italy moved rapidly. The British took Venice, captured Padova (Padua) and reached the Piave river north east of Venice. The Americans entered Genoa and sliced to Como.

A BOY DIED LAST NIGHT...

A BOY died last night. It doesn't make much difference now about his name. It might have been your son, your brother, your husband. The important thing is that he died, in poignant and awful loneliness out somewhere on a waste of sand, out in a starless silence, 10,000 miles from home.

"Missing in action" read an obscure line in this morning's communique. That was all. Now he lies there, a crumpled, twisted mass of flesh, that yesterday was his body. The fine head and the shining face and the broad shoulders remain only in a picture that looks out upon a quiet living-room on a shaded street an eternity away.

Last night, in those agonizing hours of unspeakable isolation, he went through a thousand deaths without the one thing that might have helped a little — the sound of a familiar voice, the pat of a friendly hand. Many people died last night in their beds at home, surrounded by those who cared. Last night he died in utter desolation in an unimaginable loneliness.

The pain was terrible enough. But then there had to be that dreadful burden of thought in those endless last hours. Mom and Pop. The flowers blooming again in the backyard. The good old roadster in the driveway. That last sweetheart kiss at the station. Those dances last summer. That half-finished letter in his blouse. All those plans for the future. Couldn't somebody find him, please? The wracking pain again.

Too much for you, all this? But it really happened last night, just like that. It's going to happen a thousand times—ten thousand times, and perhaps a million times in the nights to come. If people could only understand it. If they would just grind deep into their thinking the stark, terrible reality of it, every petty, selfish interest would be swept away. They would sacrifice anything and everything just to make themselves worthy of that boy.

He died last night, you see. There's no way to get around that.

Waxing heels and toes of stockings with a bit of candle was routine hose economy long ago in wooden shoe lands of Europe, and it is a practical way to meet stocking problems today. Blazing Action In Starrett Film

"Sagebrush Heroes," Columbia Pictures' latest, and one of the most exciting and thrilling Westernns, starring the handsome and reckless-riding Charles starrett, comes to the Milam Friday and Saturday with the cheers of the kids and the breathless attention of their elders.

It's Wild West action of the 1945 brand . . . plus pounding with fights and furious riding, relieved by the more gentle entertainment from cowboy songs while radio's masked rider (Starrett) and his singing pals outride . . . outshoot . . . and outsmart crooks . . . the kind that use real bullets, as they cover up their cattle rustling behind the protection of a boy's reform home

Starrett as usual gives his dashing and fresh portrayal. Constance Worth is blonde and bold as the newspaper gal. There are also Jimmy Wakely and his Saddle Pals, Dub Taylor and other well-remembered cowboys. They back up the forceful hero with musical interludes mixed adroitly with hard riding.

Wise-Reider Wedding Rites Read in Austin

Miss Jean Louise Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse P. Wise, of Maysfield, and AMM1-C Richard Kenneth Reider of Elizabethtown, Pa., were married Friday in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary chapel in Austin. Rev. Henry McClelland Bailey, pastor of the bride's family church at Maysfield, read the candlelight ceremony.

The altar was decorated with palms, ferns, and split carantions, and lit by tall white tapers in candelabra.

Eldon Sutton, organist, played as a prelude Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "I Love You." Bill Reynolds sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The organ interlude was Cadman's "At Dawning," and the traditional wedding marches opened and closed the ceremony.

Miss Jo Ruth Graham of Jasper, room mate of the bride at the University of Texas, was maid of honor. Brides maids were Miss Sybil Trainer and Miss Margaret Dow of Austin.

Best man was Bill Reynolds of Cotulla, and ushers were Douglas Byers of Santa Ana, Balif., and Lowell Hoskins.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Robert Irby Wise of the University of Texas school of medicine. She wore a powder blue dinner gown. A cascade veil of heirloom rosepoints lace was held in place by white iris. Her bouquet was of white iris and white split carnations, and she carried a drawnwork handkerchief which her mother had carried at her wedding.

The bride is a junior nutrition major at the University of Texas, where she is a member of WICA and the Glamazons. She is laboratory technician in the national cotton council research laboratories.

The bride groom, a member of the V-5 program at the University, from December 1943 to July 1944, is completing his training in the naval air corps and will receive his commission this summer. He has served in the Atlantic area as a member of an air crew. He is stationed at Pensacola, Fla., where the bride will join him in July.

Black Market Versus Brighter Meals

I guess our town doesn't like rationing any better than other folks. But when a fellow went from door to door the other day, peddling butter, cheese, and bacon without points, he didn't find a single taker.

Ed Carey's missus, Sarah, summed it up. "I'd just be ashamed to have that butter on my table," Sarah says. "I'd a heap rather have my family and guests put up with what I can serve honestly, than give 'em a treat from the Black Market."

These days, most people are agreed that a simple menu of unrationed foods and substitutes is a badge of honor . . . no apologies required!

And from where I sit, housewives can brighten limited meals with cheerful table decorations, sparkling cider or tangy ice-cold beer, or side dishes of home-made preserves and fruits and nuts. Those little touches can be mighty helpful to the appetite.

Looking to Tomorrow

While there is much to be done to win the war in the Pacific and we must not slacken our efforts in the least, yet we cannot be entirely oblivious to the fact that the Post-War World is just around the corner.

In such proportion as the situation demands we must think of our future here at home. To take up where we left off and carry forward we must make rapid progress. We must be modern and alert in our business for things have changed. Keep in touch with your bank.

S-Sgt. Durell Ward Writes of Atrocities In German Camps

S-Sgt. Durell Ward of Rogers, in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward, tells about scenes of horror in German prison camps.

"The war has been hell," said St. Ward, "and if you could see the things I have seen, it would make you want to kill every German you see. The way they have treated some of our boys over here, and you read about how they treat the German prisoners back home, it makes you want to quit fighting. They have good places to stay and good food to eat. They run around loose with no guards to watch them half the time. If you could just see how they treat our boys. I wish I could write what I am thinking about these damn krauts. Sometime I think the people at home are crazy. We go through one town after another. Some days we have gone as far as 60 miles.

When we go through these German towns the people just stand and look at us. They say they never saw so many tanks, guns and trucks. You should see some of these French, Russian and Polish prisoners and from other countries, people the Germans have had working here as slave laborers. It exceeds anything I have ever imagined. We have liberated thousands of them and when we go by they stand by the side of the road and wave and shout because they are so happy they are free again.

"We have a boy now. He is a little Palack boy. We went through a German town one day and this boy came over to our section. We have a boy who can talk his lauguage. He told us that when the Germans came into Poland he was at school and they took all the school boys and shipped them to Germany to work as slaves. They killed his mother and father. He looked so pitiable. He had on ragged clothes and shoes about 4 sizes too large. You should see his hands, how they are scarred and twisted from working so hard. He is 13. They made him shovel coal into a furnace to make munitions. We gave him all the candy he could eat and he ate lunch with us and when we asked him if he wanted to go with us he jumped on the truck. Now he is our boy. We took some small army clothes and cut them down for him. He is learning to speak English. His name in English is Joe so we call him G. I. Joe. When we go back to the states we are going to take him with us."

Felt Emblems

Unless a felt emblem on a sweater is colorfast (and it seldom is), it should be removed before sweater is washed. If emblem is washable, wash it in lukewarm suds, using a soft brush, if necessary, to get it clean. Keep emblem flat throughout the washing and rinsing, blot it with a towel and place it on a towel to dry. If pressing is required, do so on wrong side.

WILL TAKE HITLER ALIVE IF POSSIBLE

The valiant soldiers of Soviet Russia were fighting in the center of Berlin at noon Thursday and a genuine search is on for Hitler whom Goebbels says is in Berlin.

The Russian command said that Hitler will be taken alive if possible. He will probably be hung in Moscow.

Russian soldiers were fighting for vengeance. Many of them have said the Germans killed their wives and other relatives and the revenge is swift and terrible.

The city of Berlin is completely circled. Destruction is going ahead at a rate that will reduce Berlin to rubble in a matter of days.

Benito Mussolini has been flushed from his hideout somewhere in Southwestern Germany and is fleeing to the Swiss border.

The 3rd, 7th and French armies are all across the Danube River and are 45 miles from Munich. The 5th and 8th armies in Italy are chasing the Germans toward the Alps and are forging rapidly to the Brenner Pass where Hitler and Mussolini held many of their historic conferences.

In London Churchill announced that the British isles are free from robot bomb attacks.

Bremen has falled to the British army.

SGT. WELDON TURNER REACHES HOME HERE

Sgt. Weldon Turner, the first Cameron man held prisoner by the Germans to reach home, has been in the city for more than a week.

Sgt. Turner was a prisoner about 6 months. His experiences have been related in part to The Herald and due to some reservations the story has not been written. The publishers hope to bring the account beginning Monday.

Due to the fast that his trip out of the erritory liberated by the Russians may have some miliary restrictions, it may be an incomplete story. Sgt. Turner did say he ended up in Odessa on the Black Sea and from there made his way to the United States by ship.

He has regained some of his strength. He said that if it had not been for the Red Cross many of the men would have succumbed to hunger.

Robbers Make A Big Haul at Oil Agency Office in Cameron

Robbers Wednesday night made a big haul at the office of E. H. Coffield, of the Gulf Refining Company.

According to officers the robbers took 4 thousand gallons in gasoline stamps, a number of cash coupon books, radio, some small change and checks amounting to several hundred dollars.

The desk of Mr. Coffield was badly wrecked and papers were scattered over the office. Mr. Mercer of the Public Safety Department in Austin, spent the forenoon here but found no fingerprints. It was thought that the robbers were professionals. More than one robber were believed involved.

The lock on the Sinclair warehouse was also cut, it was said by A. R. Walschak, agent. Nothing was missing. Entrance to the Gulf offices was made by cutting the lock.

Mr. Coffield said the robbery was thorough and may be one of a series which have occured in this area in the past few days. "I am pleased with the promptness of the State Department of Public Safety. Within 2 hours after the robbery was reported an operative was here and checking for fingerprints," said Mr Coffield.

Synthetic Vitamin

Synthetic vitamin K has been developed by a group of St. Louis scientists. It is especially useful in anti-hemorrhagic treatment. Vitamin K has been very hard to isolate in the pure form, but a patent, assigned to St. Louis university, describes methods for isolating it from plant substances, such as alfalfa or synthetically from coal tar.

Symbol on Dime

The dime now in use was first minted in 1916. The bundle of sticks is the ancient Roman fasces, rods bound about a protruding ax, which was the symbol of unity and strength. These fasces were borne by lictors before the Roman magistrates to indicate authority. The entwining holly branch, not wheat, on the dime stands for peace. The design is the work of Alexander Weinman, sculptor.

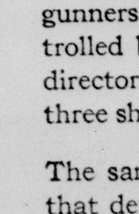
FROM GUN DIRECTORS TO FARM TELEPHONES



Sharpshooting with anti-aircraft guns seems pretty remote from telephone science—yet Bell telephone research created an "electrical brain" that gives deadly aim to sky-pointing gunners. One gun in Normandy, controlled by the Western Electric gun director, bagged a Nazi plane in only three shots.

The same expert telephone research that developed the electrical gun director has already found new ways to extend and improve farm telephone service. Practical telephone men are busy right now planning how best to use those new ideas.

They'll be ready to go when the wartime telephone job eases up.

RED FLAG FLIES OVER REICHSTAG

BORNEO INVADED BY AMERICAN FORCES

Borneo in Dutch East Indies has been invaded by the American army, it was disclosed in Tokyo early Tuesday. There was no immediate confirmation from Washington but later in the day it was known that Borneo had been invaded.

The War in Germany was speeding on to a climax. It was certain that the Germans are trying to negotiate a surrender. In London Prime Minister Chruchill said he might have some news by Saturday.

The Red Army is fighting in the center of Berlin and the Red flag floats over the Reichstag in Berlin. Only a small portion of the capital is now held and that is the Tiergarten section where Hitler is thought to be in hiding. All sources of escape have been cut off.

American armies were marking time except in the south where the French, the 7th and 3rd armies were wheeling rapidly through the Bavarian mountains, meeting no resistance.

In Moscow Marshal Joseph Stalin in a May Day address said that the liquidation of Hitlerite Germany was proceeding fast and the end of the struggle is near.

It appeared that military operations were in abeyance until the Reds take Berlin.

American and British air forces were marking time. No targets worth the raid were in existence.

Belief was expressed the Germans have made a surrender offer which includes Russia but it has not been accepted. An error equivalent to the Armistice of 1918 might be made if any negotiations were entered. The army commanders seemed determined to go until every German has been killed or captured.

Sgt. W. W. (Billie) Loftin who fought in all the major campaigns since the invasion under the leadership of General George Patton in the 3rd American army, has written his sister, Mrs. Ben Kennon to tell something of what he has seen in the atrocity camps in Germany.

Sgt. Loftin only recently learned that his brother, Cpl. Jack Loftin, gunner on a Flying Fortress, is missing in action over Germany. He says if Jack is a German prisoner he knows what he may now be suffering.

Sgt. Loftin at present is on guard at a prison camp which was recently liberated. " am at this camp doing guard duty over some of our allies who have been here 4 and 5 years," writes Sgt. Loftin. "They are mostly Russian and French and what a lot. There were some of our boys here and the damn Germans almost straved them to death. When we came here they were too weak to walk but now are being sent back to the states and what a happy bunch of men they are. If the people back home could only have seen the condition our boys were in they would stop that damn pampering of German war prisoners in the USA. I tell you it is disgusting to read of the way those Krauts are being treated back home. Someday, somebody is going to have to answer for it. There are a few here who were a part of this camp and volunteered to stay and help us. I put them to work. I made them scrub my room until it shines. In my opinion there are no good Germans. Every since I have been in Germany I have hated them more. It looks like I will be here for a long time."

OFFER MADE TO U. S. AND GREAT BRITAIN

Heinrich Himmler, Gestapo Chief, has offered to surrender unconditionally to the United States and Great Britain, said a broadcast at noon which was accompanied by a statement from Winston Churchill who said that such an offer would not be considered unless it was also made to Russia.

British newspapers printed the story with great prominence. Mr. Churchill made no denial and it was regarded as substantially true.

Under the terms of the alliance neither of the big tree powers will accept surrender unless all agree.

There was no Washington comment.

Whether the Allies would deal with Himmler remains to be seen. It had been generally regarded that Himmler was representing the German government. The end of the war in Europe was within sight.

The Russians hold all except about one fourth of the city of Berlin, now completely destroyed.

The French 5th Army has penetrated deep into the Bavarian retreat of Hitler and also had reached the Swiss border.

General Patton's Third Army was about to link up with the Reds in Austria.

The 7th army under General Patch was 25 miles from Munich.

The rumor that Himmler had offered to surrender to the United States and Great Britain was broadcast by the Luxembourg radio, also.

Capt. Thomas Yager Married in Gulfport, Miss. To Margaret Marie Scarbrough; Veteran Early Air War in Pacific to Fly for Eastern Airlines

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Scarbrough of Saucier announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Marie, to Capt. Thomas Yager, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Yager of Cameron. The wedding was solemnized last Thursday evening, April 12, at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church with Rev. C. C. Iark officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. B. Ferguson, organist, played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional.

The bride wore a white two piece dress of sheer wool with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. She had as her attendant Mrs. William McQuire and the groom had as his attendant Lt. Harry Luke.

Capt. Yager has returned from duty in the Pacific theatre of operations. He attended John Tarleton Agricultural College. Mrs. Yager attended Perkinston Junior College, and has been employed at Gulfport Field. Captain Yager has received his discharge from the Army Air Forces and will be a pilot for Eastern Airlines.

Salt on Juice

If juice from an apple pie runs out over the oven, shake salt on it. The salty mixture will burn crisp and may be removed with ease.

CLOTHING COLLECTION IS SUCCEEDING HERE

National Clothing Collection under the direction of the local committee was succeeding well, but much remained to be done.

Plans to have Scouts make a house to house call in the city were not realized. It is felt this plan would have brought in more clothing.

The collection drive ends on April 30. If you have not made your contribution, you are urged to do so at once.

Arrangements have been made to have trucks call and pick up clothing. When you have determined what you will give call either of the following telephone numbers: 612, 399 or 308.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lucas of Dallas are with his father W. H. Lucas who is ill in Newton Memorial Hospital.

THESE men can tell YOU why the 7th WAR LOAN is the BIGGEST Yet!

You are being asked to lend more money than ever before—in the 7th War Loan.

These men can tell you why.

They can tell you of giant ships ready to slide down the ways this year.

They can tell you of a whole new air force in the building—huge new bombers and fast new jet-propelled planes coming off the lines by thousands.

They could show you why it is cheaper and quicker to give our Pacific Forces entirely new equipment sometimes—instead of shipping tanks and guns from Europe.

They can, in short, show 101 ways in which your dollars are needed more than ever to bring America's might to its full strength—so that we may crush our foe the faster, make an end of killing, and bring our men back home.

Will YOU tell THESE men "I can't afford to buy my share"?

THE GENERALS and admirals can show us why our money is needed—more money than before.

But other men can show us something, too.

They're the men with twisted, crippled limbs... with clever iron hooks instead of hands. The blind men... the men with scarred, seamed faces. And perhaps worst of all, the men with blasted, darkened minds.

They can show us, clearly, how small is any sacrifice we make in lending money.

If you have an income, whether from work, land, or capital, you have a quota in the 7th War Loan. Find out what that quota is—and make it!

"Tunderhead" Son of Flicka

Packed with action, swift as the wind, "Thunderhead—Son of Flicka," 20th Century-Fox's glorious new Technicolor hit, based on Mary O'Hara's best-loved best-seller, and featuring Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson with an outstanding cast, is scheduled to open Thursday at the Cameron Theatre.

Thrill-filled with a new, tingling screen excitement, "Thunderhead—Son of Flicka" is being acclaimed everywhere as greater in every way than the sensationally successful "My Friend Flicka." The film is filled with the sweep and power of a boy's dreams and his dogged determination to make a racer out of the wild, white colt Flicka had brought into the world. It is, too, the story of a woman's love and one man's courage.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 6.

The Golden Text is: "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?" (Ezekiel 17:23.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible; "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the window of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it" (Malachi 3:10.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddie: "Spirit blesses man, but man cannot 'tell whence it cometh.' By it the sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and the sinning are reformed."

Color Illusion

Blue-green end walls have been used to reduce the consciousness of employees re high temperatures in southern textile mills, says "Modern Industry." Warm buff has been used in northern mills to create the illusion of warmth in rooms that otherwise might seem cold and cheerless.
